

Kent & Sussex Ten Night Tour

Sunday 12th

to Wednesday 22nd September 2021

The Spa Hotel

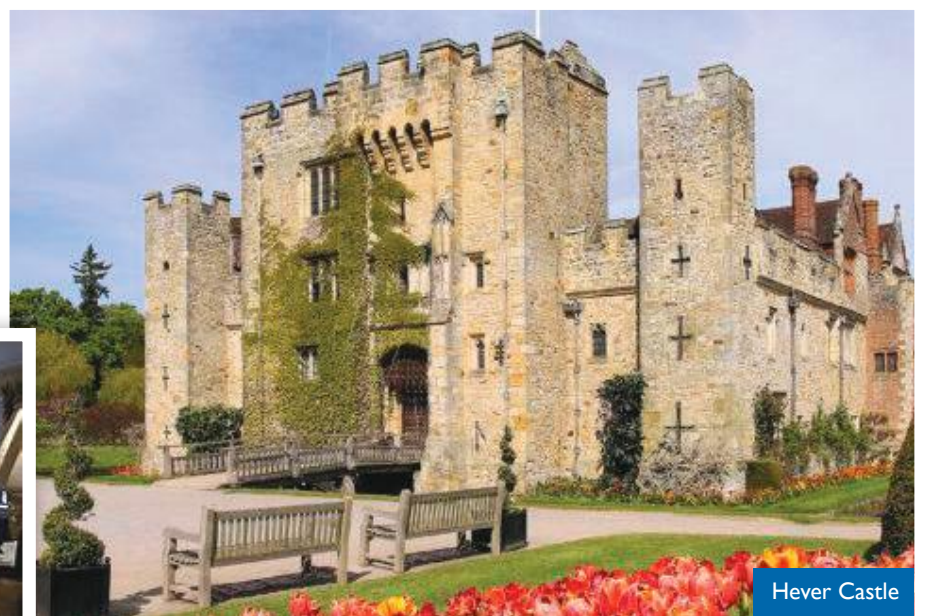

Two nights at The Spa Hotel will give you the opportunity to visit the Georgian colonnade of shops, known as The Pantilles, a 10-minute walk from our hotel.

Using fabulous 4* and 5* hotels this staycation Tour will bring you the best that Kent and Sussex have to offer

Let yourself enjoy this first month of Autumn in the Garden of England with these relaxing, visually stunning hotels and routes that ERL do so well! With a sweep of the Kent and Sussex back roads to the realms of the monarchy! With touches of history and grandeur from each hotel we are set to lead you to countryside, seaside and gastronomy!

The childhood home of Anne Boleyn, Henry VIII's second wife and the mother of Elizabeth I, putting it right in the top league of England's historically meaningful properties, and perhaps at the very top of historically meaningful properties that you can stay at.

Hever Castle

Hever Castle Hotel at Edenbridge, 5* - 28 rooms

A personal favourite, we offer you the childhood home of Anne Boleyn, the widely known 'bad girl' of Henry VIII's wives – but, was she really? Historical documents say otherwise. Why don't you come to the Castle and draw your own conclusions! Tickets to the castle are included with the hotel room price!

The Grand

Affectionately known as The White Palace, the Grand Hotel Eastbourne commands breath-taking views of the sea and the dramatic cliffs at Beachy Head. Grand by name but not by nature, The Grand Hotel in Eastbourne is the only 5-star luxury resort to be found in an English seaside town.

Grand Eastbourne Hotel at Eastbourne, 5* - 152 rooms

With Eastbourne being the playground of the rich and famous during the Victorian era – the Grand Eastbourne Hotel is reminiscent of the style and décor with a modern and contemporary twist. Overlooking the sea and beachy cliffs this hotel is often referred to as the ‘White Palace’. It may be grand in looks but not in nature, the staff are well-known for being friendly and helpful to all.

Originally a country house, built for Sir Thomas Moyle between 1540 and 1550. One of the men employed on the estate was the bricklayer Richard Plantagenet, who claimed to be an illegitimate son of Richard III. The first house was replaced by one built in the neo-Elizabethan style between 1793 and 1799 and Victorian Tudor-style wing was later added. Eastwell was next occupied by Prince Alfred, Duke of Edinburgh, the second son of Queen Victoria, who was a frequent visitor here.

Eastwell Manor

Eastwell Manor at Ashford 5* Hotel – 76 rooms

Boasting a luxury Spa sponsored by Champneys beauty products – Eastwell manor is the gem to top the ring in this 10 day tour. After the noise of the hot car engines and bustle of the days driving, this is the perfect, calm place to end the trip and enjoy a last final dinner and drink together. We look forward to seeing you there!
